

Speech by Bruno Gröning, Krailling, 20. October 1950 (short-hand recorded) «I am happy to be able to speak to you today»

My dear healthseekers!

I am happy to be able to talk to you today. I can confirm what the former speaker said, that I have a ban against healing. However, that is not really so, because up until now I have not.

– I do not know how to express it – been healing, I have only talked about healing and how sick people should relate to it. Then I also must show you the way; I can't help it, that is how I am tuned in, I have to help every person who is suffering, in agony or is attacked by illness. Meaning; I show you the way how you can receive the so-called healing wave. I did not had to come here, I have been informed that among you there are already strong reactions. I could tell you about all these healings I hear about every day, about how and in what way sick people have gotten their health back. I do not wonder why, because it is not new to me. However, it is not quite understandable to human beings, therefore I will do all I can to explain it to them, show them the way, show them what they need to be aware of.

I do not need to touch anyone, I have never so far done that, never treated any sick person in any way.

I will explain by an example: If I, 30 years ago, had told someone that there is a radio apparatus where you can listen to a person talk, no matter where he is, Berlin or another town in Germany, or abroad, that one could hear that person from a radio receiver, they would have told me that I was crazy.

Back then the radio was unknown to all people, today it has become a matter of course for everyone, today there is no doubt about how it works with sender and receiver.

You just have to know how to operate such a device. All things that humans have created, has an instruction manual. So also for my device. ('apparatus') Many people have not understood the manual, and therefore they went to the specialist, who gave them the explanation on how to operate the device. From then on the man understood how to do it so that he had a clear reception and he also knew how to tune in on other senders.

I am sure you know that not only receivers are built small, also senders, and you know for sure also that they also may have made the connection so strong that there is a risk that you disturb your neighbours. This can also happen today, but now the receivers are more built in.

It is not different here. If you imagine that you were the receiver. It does not mean that I would call you an apparatus, but you are the receiver. I know that you have visited heilpraktiker Günzel, and I am glad you have trusted him, that you hope to get all that you have wished for years, that he will make you healthy.

Hr Günzel has not told you much, and you already do it alone. As common as the radio is for human beings, so will also the healing method become. I understand very well that some people still have doubt about this, because they know so little about it. Today I have spoken with a doctor, and it is very gratifying and interesting to hear what a great interest such a person has. By that I do not mean to say that this is the first time I have spoken to someone from the traditional healthcare, and also not the last one. It is important that you talk to people here about what I do, because I am the first person in place here, and to me the most important thing to know is that people are well. For the most part people who sees this as a calling, say: the sick come first, then my family. And yes, it is right, they go for it 100%, they try to bring health to people.

I have up until this day never said a bad word about the doctors, on the contrary, in Herford I said to the health seekers that they should not talk bad about or scold the doctors. Up until now they have been good, so people must not talk bad about them.

I have repeatedly said, also in Heidelberg, people must trust their doctors. I know how it is;

At first he was good, and when he turned his back, he was pulled through dirt, when a doctor with his means was unable to heal. It's wrong, my dear friends, to bother yourselves over that. Instead of better, it's getting worse, and therefore I do not let anything be untried to say to all health seekers that they should remain calm. I do not like hatred, I do not like envy. I do not like quarrel, I do not like controversy. I say as before: Love your neighbor more than yourself! He who is exalted will be humiliated. I have never thought that I should be one of the most exalted persons, no, I am and remain the little Gröning.

I ask you to always to choose the good way. Man talks about peace and quiet, but is frequently so full of hate that he is a disturber of peace, therefore he does not build anything good inside himself, only bad. None of them wants war, and they call out about the peace. Then when war suddenly is there, it is unavoidable, because people do not understand each other.

Man is self-righteous and thinks he must assert himself. He is mean and envious, and do not want others to have anything. Just as it was with those here who said to those who were healed: 'But you are not healed'. The worst thing about this is, that if someone continues doing this to another, the other falls back into another spiritual suffering. It never ends, instead of helping this person to be able to earn his own bread, another who does not indulge him to be well, only continues to talk him away from healing. Telling him; 'that is bullshit, there is nothing like that, it has never happened'. Then the healing easily falls from them. Therefore I ask you too; do not do that. I am so happy when people come to me and thank me from their heart for having been healed. It makes me content and happy. Or when you hear; 'the man was suffering and bothered and suddenly he is well'. Lately there have been many cases known where people who have carried the heaviest sufferings, today are totally healthy.

I will mention one case, his name just came to my head – Ehrmann Landshut, the owner of the Borgteater cinema. He had 16 pelvic fractures. He had been looking for me for half a year, but had never had the luck to reach me. He was in terrible pain, and could hardly move with his two sticks. I met him and asked him to take place. I only reached out and took his hand and told him to notice what happened in his body. I also asked him if he had been born with those sticks. 'No', he said, 'but I give them to you, and I do not ask for conditions'. I told the woman sitting next to him - she is a lady of great trust - to pay attention to how a healing happened. He had hardly... (here something is missing in the shorthand recording) ... I still, that this man was cooked - his limbs were totally suffused with blood – he was sweating as if a bucket of water had been emptied over him. He felt the urge, and the lady told him to stand up! Then he stood up and walked. At that moment I was in another room, and when I met him in the corridor, he embraced me hard. I have a head made of wood, and my limbs are also flexible, but it was a little too much. He is today in the best of health. 'I know what the health is worth for me' he says. He visited his doctor, who was speechless. It is not my habit to praise myself, but when I know that such things happen on a daily basis, I can say that I am the happiest person.

Last week when I talked to healthseekers, a young man fell down unconscious and was placed on a stretcher. When I had finished my speech – it was not really a speech, but a story – I asked him. He said: 'It is just like last year, when you healed me'.

The year before his father came to Traberhof and let his son stay at home (as I had said; you just need to fetch the instruction, and then it happens) It was just like that with his father. He brought a tinfoil ball for his son (it is only tinfoil) he gave his son the ball in his hand, and told him what he had experienced there. 'Dad, about X o'clock I felt the first thing, and I got another power shock, this time stronger,» (the first powershock he got when the father had the ball in Traberhof) now the father has healed his son – not me.

«The people sung and prayed, now you pray too, my son, the Lords prayer three times, because Gröning does not want any thanks, but you owe a great 'thank you' to the Lord.»

The young man did so, and when he had finished his prayer, he got up and walked, and is up until this day completely healthy. He can now walk, what he could not back then. There are more cases like this. I can only say to man all the time: Do not be angry with me for being healthy and do not thank me, thank Our Lord.

It is not my power, it is conveyed to me, the true, divine power. If I had learned it from human beings, it would not be like this. I have up until this day not taken any human teachings to me. I have followed it for many years, and have observed much about how I can help many people. No one can deny it, for many have been healed, and that is why it is right.

I return to the radio, the receiver apparatus. You will never receive the wave quite right when you do not tune in right. It depends on the purity. Tune in at home. The same as here also happens there.

There are also boxes of letters...I will not give you imaginations....

Dr. Trampler ...the things have happened, therefore I will leave nothing untried in order to help also you on to the road where people receive health. It is wrong to say that I have healed. Some have said that mr. Kuhlmann has healed. The kind of healings that have happened here today, has happened many times. In Herford, at Traberhof, when I was not present, only mr. Kuhlmann. He informed that I would do a mass healing, and when the healing wave came, he hurried out on the balcony and then it happened, a lot happened. It is not a miracle, just a surprise for almost all those who have thanked.

Mr. Kuhlmann did the right when he said; 'It is Not me, and not even Mr. Gröning, it is the healing wave that has healed. It is the divine power. Mr. Gröning rejects it, he says: you thank our Lord!'

Therefore as a human being I go for the stand-point: I want to know all people good, and not only good in words. People promise so much, and do not keep their promises. The good can only be proved in deeds. I could also stand before you and tell you the biggest thrilling adventure, and not be able to prove it. It would be wrong and then I would be the stupid one. The good thing is that I do not use empty words, I can show them in deeds and actions. You who have followed the writings in the press while it was still positiv, or have heard something in the neighbourhood, you will know that I do not tell fairy tales. I do for sure not have to exaggerate, then I would be a liar or fraudster or that which I have already been called, a quack. That is how it is when one knows a lot, has experienced a lot, then you soon get tired of talking.

Therefore I have only hinted a little here, and you know it is true, or else you would not have come here so trusting. The basic condition is that man lays aside the evil that he up until now has been doing, and tries to be good. I repeat again and again: be kind and peaceful. It has also happened that a member of the family has come home, told the mother something bad, and she has taken it to her in such a degree that she gets sick and full of worries. It upsets the stomach. She can't eat, she is getting worse all the time, therefore I always say: people are obliged to help one another. If you find a person who is about to fall, that you at once give a hand and help him up. I help you, I will follow you a bit on your way, support you so it will be easier for you. Later you can walk by yourself.

Man must know what it is all about. You can not expect anything good from a mean person, you all know that when they have become satanic they can do nothing good, only evil. They even steal. Then it is right to have people that can help, like the police, who do all they can to capture these persons. It is right to see to that they are removed, and for a time being are taken away from the daily life, so that not another person who is easily seduced and affected, does the same.

There must be order. As far as he is able, the father ensures peace and order in his own house. In other cases, the mother is there to make that happen. But here it has not yet been thought that there are people who do not like others.

Just as I have found that such wicked people have left no stone unturned in denying the health of the healed. I repeat, a place must be found for these people as well, where they can be drawn away from the healed. I've also found out that the healing doesn't last. But here, too, the fact has always proved that people who have had their health for a year or more had not been influenced by these bad people. They knew what health is worth to them and they knew how expensive the illness was and what they as human beings had failed to do actively.

There must be order. In his own house the father, as far as he has the ability, ensures peace and order. In other cases the mother makes sure that it happens. However, one has not thought of that it can be persons who only wants evil for his next. Just as I have noticed; people like that also want to talk a healing away from a person. I say it again: also for such people there must be a small place where they can be withdrawn from the (newly) healed. I have also noticed this; the healing does not stay. However, those healed who have been able to not be influenced by those bad people, they have kept their healing a year or more. They knew how much the healing meant to them, and they knew how costly the illness was, and what they as people have failed to do, because of their poor will power /will to act.

I do hope that you are satisfied with this short speech. I also hope that you have understood me, what my will is, and what my path is. I do not do this out of a wish for money and to get rich. If I wanted that, remember what kind of offers that have offered me. If I had taken those offers, I would have been a very rich person today. However, I have become very rich, the difference is only that I have become rich on power to help people. This last is so dear to me and that is the road I will continue to walk.

Now I end my short speech and I wish you all the best for the rest of your lives. To be rich is to be healthy.
