

Text from the book 'Powers of the Spirit' by Alfred Hosp, page 143-146, English edition 2010
Alexander Loy received this text in automatic writing, a call from God the Lord.

Human being, discover yourself in the divine space, discover yourself in the divine will. Seek to discover the divine. Human being, be mindful that the hour of decision over your being has come. Take note no longer of the signs of the times, but of the signs of the hour; we do not have that much time left. Discover that you understand my call, bend your stubborn will, and acknowledge the deed that you out of pride and lack of reason have committed. Take my will as your own. In your overconfidence you have squandered your free will. Hear my call.

The days are numbered that still remain for your conversion. A short time is still given so that all may be shown what is right. The destiny that the earth has always given itself is being subjected to a great correction. Much will be; much will be no longer. The new that arises mankind will quickly understand; and the time of divine intervention begins if and when human beings do not find their way to thoughts of divine order.

Why do human beings take earthly things to be the means to make the thoughts of creation their own, contrary to what is right? You should be the guardians of the creation. The creation should be your servant. What have you done? You have become the destroyers of my creation. You wish to annihilate my work, which makes your life on earth possible and should preserve you.

Your atomic research is an assault on the fundamental law of my creation. I allow it to happen, but the act of the 'evil one' will not come to pass, if you, o human being, realize what you are doing. God's will is not annihilation; preservation and survival, that is divine. Annihilation is the same as disorder. Order is life – and life is God. My children should speak to me, but they should also recognize my activity, even if they often believe that it should be otherwise. Understanding and willing the good, this is what you should always carry in your heart. It is necessary to love and believe in God and in His son, who is on earth and upon whom you can gaze in your hearts. Open up all of your heart and let me in. have faith and feel and find in the essential nature of my life my PRIMEVAL and fundamental being – as creator and lord of all worlds.

May what I say to you now remain with you; no one who does not yet understand should be disturbed by it. They must first of all learn to look. All must hear and obey me of their own free will. You should follow me because you recognize me. Control your bodies in all earthly concerns. Maintain discipline and measure in all your thinking. Listen inside yourselves. You will then hear and feel me quite clearly, and what can then still cause you to err? The days that I am sending you they are of great importance for you and your continued survival. Just as once you were my servants and fellow strivers, today too you must recognize and carry out your duty. I have spoken the word to you, so that you can comprehend what for many is incomprehensible.

And while you are gathered around me today, my dear friends, give me your earthly worries and needs, so that you may become free and be able to do and act in accordance with the divine will.

So may that which is, stand.

So may that which is rotten, fall.

May life be lived in God.

Amen
